The child will be covered from the earlier of the date of the court order or the date of placement in your home if you apply for coverage and pay any required premium within 31 days after the date of the court order or placement. However, coverage will begin at the moment of birth if the court order or placement for adoption, application for coverage and payment of premium occurs within 31 days after the child's birth. The carrier reserves the right to approve or disapprove any late application to cover a dependent.

DEFINITION OF ELIGBLE EMPLOYEES

In accordance with the regulations implementing the employer-shared responsibility requirements of the Affordable Care Act, the University of Illinois determines eligibility of employees as follows:

Employees eligible for coverage on the effective date of coverage under the plan:

Employees designated as variable-hour employees across University employee classifications (including undergraduate and graduate student employees and other temporary, intermittent, irregular employees, variable hour or contingent faculty, civil service and academic staff) who average at least thirty (30) hours of service per week during a standard twelve (12) month measurement period ending on October 2, 2015.

- Employees eligible for coverage on the effective date of coverage under the plan or first day of service, whichever is later:
 - (a) Employees hired to fill a job vacancy who, as of the date of hire, are expected to average at least 30 hours of service per week.
 - (b) Employees holding a J1 or F1 Visa who average at least thirty (30) hours of service per week, but have not met the "substantial presence" test.
- 3. Employees eligible to participate in an annual open enrollment for coverage effective on the first day of the plan year following that open enrollment period:

Ongoing employees designated as variable-hour employees across University employee classifications (including undergraduate and graduate student employees and other temporary, intermittent, irregular employees, variable hour or contingent faculty, civil service and academic staff) who average at least thirty (30) hours of service per week during a standard twelve (12) month measurement period ending annually on October 2nd.

4. Employees eligible for coverage upon conclusion of an eleven (11) month initial measurement period:

New employees designated as variable-hour employees across University employee classifications (including undergraduate and graduate student employees and other temporary, intermittent, irregular employees, variable-hour or contingent faculty, civil service and academic staff) who average at least thirty (30) hours of service per week during an initial eleven (11) month measurement period beginning on the first day of the month following the first day of service:

GENERAL QUESTIONS

Can I change my enrollment choices?

Not usually. Typically you must wait for the next open enrollment period. However, there are certain times when enrollment changes can be made.

For example, if you didn't enroll your dependents in BasicAdvantage Total Coverage because they were already covered under another plan, and that coverage is lost, you can request a special enrollment within 31 days of the loss of that other coverage.

Reasons for losing other medical coverage:

- Divorce, legal separation, or death;
- Termination of a dependent's employment;
- Reduction of a dependent's hours;
- Termination of COBRA rights; or
- Loss of employer's contribution to spouse's medical coverage.

If you have a change in your family situation, such as a divorce, legal separation, death, marriage, or birth/adoption of a child, you can also request a special enrollment within 31 days of that change.

YOU MUST COMPLETE A LIFE EVENT CHANGE FORM to make any enrollment change. That form is available from your Employer.

When will coverage end?

Coverage ends if:

- premiums aren't paid in full;
- you enter an Armed Service on full-time active duty;
- you are no longer eligible for the coverage; or
- the group policies terminate.

If coverage ends, you may be entitled to continue your coverage under COBRA. There is information about COBRA later in this booklet. If you enter full-time active duty in an Armed Service, you may be able to continue your coverage under the Uniformed Services Employment and Re-employment Rights Act (USERRA). There is information about USERRA later in this booklet.

How much does the Benefit Program cost?

The premium due for the Benefit Program varies depending upon the coverage you selected and which family members you cover. You should check your copy of the form you used to enroll to determine the amount due for your coverage.

Note: Premium amounts are subject to change over time.

Who is an eligible dependent?

BasicAdvantage Total, Essential, Dental & Term Life Coverages allow for eligible dependents to be covered. Eligible dependents are:

- your lawful spouse; and
- your eligible children through age 25.

Eligible children include your children by birth, stepchildren, foster children, legally adopted children, children living with you while you are completing adoption procedures, and children for whom coverage has been court-ordered. Note: If you have a covered child who turns 26 and is disabled and unable to earn a living, they may still be eligible for coverage. You must notify your Employer within 31 days to ensure continued eligibility for that child. Proof of continued eligibility may be required from time to time.

When does coverage begin and end for my dependents?

Your dependents' coverage begins when your coverage begins if you enrolled them when you enrolled. It ends when yours does, or when the dependent is no longer eligible. If you've enrolled in the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage, your child born while coverage is in force is covered for injury and sickness (including covered events that provide necessary care and treatment of congenital defects, birth abnormality and premature birth), as well as routine newborn care for the first 31 days. The child will remain covered for injury and sickness after the first 31 days only if you apply for coverage and pay any required premium within the 31-day period after the child's birth. A minor child who comes under your care and control while the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage is in force is covered for injury and sickness provided you file a petition to adopt. The child will be covered from the date of placement in your home if you apply for coverage and pay any required premium within 31 days after the date of placement. However, coverage shall begin at the moment of birth if the petition for adoption, application for coverage and payment of premium occurs within 31 days after the child's birth. The carrier reserves the right to approve or disapprove any late application to cover a dependent.

When does coverage begin and end for my dependents under the Essential Coverage?

Your dependents' coverage begins when your coverage begins if you enrolled them when you enrolled. It ends when yours does, or when the dependent is no longer eligible. If you've enrolled in the Essential Coverage, your child born while coverage is in force is covered for the first 31 days. The child will remain covered for preventive health services after the first 31 days only if you apply for coverage and pay any required premium within the 31-day period after the child's birth. A minor child who comes under your care and control while the Essential Coverage is in force is covered for preventive health services provided you file a petition to adopt. The child will be covered from the date of placement in your home if you apply for coverage and pay any required premium within 31 days after the date of placement. However, coverage shall begin at the moment of birth if the petition for adoption, application for coverage and payment of premium occurs within 31 days after the child's birth. The carrier reserves the right to approve or disapprove any late application to cover a dependent.

If a court order requires that I provide coverage for my dependents, how will this begin?

You and your Employer will both receive the court order requiring coverage to begin for your dependents. Your Employer will then be responsible for making the appropriate arrangements and notifying the carrier.

What if both my spouse and I work for the same Employer?

You can either both choose single coverage or where spouse coverage is available, one of you may choose family coverage. You may not be covered twice. If you and your spouse have one or more eligible children, only one of you may cover all dependents (spouse and children).

COBRA – EXTENDED COVERAGE

What is COBRA?

As noted previously, if your coverage ends you may be entitled to have continued coverage in some circumstances. A federal law known as COBRA gives you this continuation right. It stands for the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985. The continuation right only extends to BasicAdvantage Total Coverage, Essential Coverage and Dental Coverage. The employee must be enrolled in the specific coverage(s) in order for it to be continued. For example, if you are enrolled in the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage and Dental Coverage, you may continue both Coverages.

While you may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of your dependents, each person who was covered at the time coverage ends has his or her own right to elect COBRA and/or any other state continuation or conversion rights. This means that your dependents may elect such coverage even if you decide not to. So, if you have enrolled your eligible spouse or children, please share this information with them. If you would like additional copies of this booklet to share with your spouse or children, please contact your Employer. For more information about your COBRA rights, contact your Employer.

When am I eligible for COBRA?

You and your covered dependents are eligible for COBRA continuation if your coverage ends because you quit or lose your job for any reason, other than gross misconduct, or your hours are reduced. Generally, you and your dependents are entitled to continue health coverage for 18 months. However, if you or your dependents are disabled, then the period may be extended to a total term of 29 months (see "What if I am disabled when my employment ends?").

What about my dependents?

Your dependents are also eligible for COBRA continuation if they lose coverage at any time due to:

- your death;
- your divorce or legal separation;
- your becoming entitled to Medicare while on COBRA; or
- your dependent no longer meeting the eligibility definition under the Benefit Program (for example, a dependent child reaching the age limit).

In any of these qualifying even'ts your dependents are entitled to continue health coverage for 36 months from the date of the event.

What must I do to elect COBRA?

Your Employer must provide notice when you lose or quit your job, your hours are reduced, or you become entitled to Medicare. Your Employer will notify you of your right to elect COBRA by sending you a COBRA election notice. Within 60 days of that notification, you must respond, in writing, of your election.

Do my dependents and I have to keep my Employer informed?

Yes. You and your dependents must notify your Employer of your current address and, if different, the address(es) of your dependents (spouse and children). You and/or your dependents must provide notice of: (1) your divorce or legal separation; (2) your dependent's loss of coverage for any of the reasons previously listed (see "What about my dependents?"); and (3) a determination by the Social Security Administration that you or your covered dependents are disabled. You and your dependents must mail or hand-deliver written notice of these events within 60 days to your Employer.

When does COBRA end?

COBRA coverage will end on the earliest of:

- the expiration of the maximum allowable term of 18, 29 or 36 months;
- the date the required premium is not paid when due;
- the date the group health coverage is terminated for active employees;

- the date the person on COBRA coverage first becomes covered under any other group health plan, without limitation as to any pre-existing condition that affects coverage; or
- the date the person on COBRA coverage becomes entitled to Medicare benefits.

What if I am on extended sick leave when my employment ends?

Under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), you may be entitled to extended sick leave from your employment. If during that period you do not pay your premium, you can still elect COBRA if your employment ends during your FMLA leave. In such a case, you would not have to make up the missed premium for any time when you were on FMLA leave, but you would not be covered for any gaps in coverage.

What if I am disabled when my employment ends?

In order to extend continuation coverage for you and your dependents to 29 months, you or a covered family member must be disabled before or within the first 60 days of COBRA coverage. If this is the case, a copy of the Social Security Administration's "determination of disability" must be sent to your Employer within 60 days of the determination, and within the original 18 months of your COBRA coverage. The premium to be paid for this additional 11 months of coverage may be substantially greater than the premium for the initial 18-month period and you will be notified of the additional cost of the extended coverage. If, during the 11-month extension, you or your covered dependents are no longer disabled, you must notify your Employer within 30 days. The extended COBRA coverage will end when you or your dependent are no longer disabled.

Is there another way to extend COBRA coverage?

Yes. If, while under the initial 18-month COBRA continuation coverage, your covered dependents experience another event that separately entitled them to COBRA continuation, they may get up to 18 additional months of continuation coverage. Notice of the second qualifying event must be given to your Employer. This extension is available only if the event would have caused the dependent to lose coverage under the Benefit Program had the first loss of coverage not occurred.

When will I pay for COBRA coverage?

Your COBRA election notice identifies premium amounts due for your election(s). You may submit a premium payment when you return your COBRA election notice. If you do, you will be sent payment coupons for future COBRA premium payments.

If you do not pay your premium with your COBRA election notice, you must make your first premium payment within 45 days from the date of your election. After your initial premium payment, you must pay the regular monthly payments (shown on your COBRA election notice) by the first of each month. A monthly bill will not be sent to you.

What premium has to be paid for COBRA coverage?

Generally, you will pay the rate for similarly situated active employees under the Benefit Program, plus a 2% administrative fee. If the rate changes for active employees, your rate will change accordingly. As noted above, the premium for the 11-month extension because of disability could be substantially higher than normal.

What rights does a person on COBRA have during an open enrollment period?

A person on COBRA has the same rights at open enrollment as other covered persons under the Benefit Program.

Is there a way, other than COBRA, to extend coverage?

In some limited circumstances, and as governed by state law, you may be entitled to extended coverage if you lose your coverage and do not elect COBRA. At such time, you should contact your Employer to determine what rights, if any, you might have.

Are there any other insurance options available after coverage under this program terminates?

There may be other health insurance options available to you and your family. You are also able to buy coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. In the Marketplace, you could be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums right away, and you can see what your premium, deductibles, and out-of-pocket costs will be before you make a decision to enroll. Being eligible for COBRA does not limit your eligibility for coverage for a tax credit through the Marketplace. Additionally, you may qualify for a special enrollment opportunity for another group health plan for which you are eligible (such as a spouse's plan), even if the plan generally does not accept late enrollees, if you request enrollment within 30 days.

ABOUT THE BENEFIT PROGRAM

CONFORMITY WITH THE LAW

If any provision of the Benefit Program is contrary to any law to which it is subject, such provision is hereby amended to conform thereto. Nothing in the Benefit Program is intended to replace or affect any requirements for coverage by Workers' Compensation insurance.

BENEFIT PROGRAM TERMINATION, AMENDMENT, AND ADMINISTRATION

The Employer intends to continue the Benefit Program but reserves the right at any time, at its discretion, to terminate the Benefit Program, to modify the Benefit Program, to provide different cost-sharing between the Employer and participants, or to amend the Benefit Program in any respect. In the event the Benefit Program is terminated, any assets held in trust for the Benefit Program will be used to provide welfare benefits for employees of the Plan Sponsor or a successor, or they will be used in other ways not prohibited by the Internal Revenue Service regulations.

UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT and RE-EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT (USERRA)

A federal law known as USERRA requires an Employer to offer continuation of coverage when an enrolled employee is called to serve in the military. The continuation right only extends to BasicAdvantage Total Coverage, Essential Coverage and Dental Coverage. The employee must be enrolled in the specific coverage(s) in order for it to be continued. For example, if you are enrolled in the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage and Dental Coverage, you may continue both Coverages.

If you are called to military duty for more than 30 days, you may elect to continue coverage for you and your covered dependents for up to 24 months, but you may be required to pay up to 102% of the premium for your coverage. Your Employer is required to provide coverage for you as though you had remained on the job if you are out on military service for less than 31 days. In this case, you will be charged only your share of the premium. When you return to work, your coverage will be reinstated with no new waiting periods.

PLAN DESCRIPTION

This booklet, together with the copy you made of the form you used to enroll, is a Plan Description. It provides a summary of the major provisions and benefits of the Benefit Program. It is also intended to tell you about the limitations and exclusions of the Benefit Program. Because this booklet is only a summary, it has not been written with all of the technical words and legal phrases used in the official Benefit Program documents. For full details about the insurance coverage, you may obtain a copy of the policy(ies) from the Employer. The official Benefit Program documents remain the final authority and, in the event of a conflict with this booklet, shall govern in all cases.

ASRM

ASRM is a Third Party Administrator that provides records keeping and claims paying services for the carrier identified under "BENEFIT PROGRAM INFORMATION". The carrier is the underwriter of the insurance contract(s). As a Third Party Administrator, ASRM has no discretionary powers under the Benefit Program and, in particular, has no discretionary power in the paying or denying of claims. ASRM is referred to as "RSL Specialty Products Administration" throughout this booklet.

PROGRAM FUNDING

Benefits will be provided on a fully-insured basis through the insurance contract(s) issued by the carrier directly to the Plan Sponsor. Participants are responsible for all required premiums, less any Employer contribution. The carrier provides certain policyholder and claims processing through ASRM (see above). The carrier serves as the claims review fiduciary with respect to the insurance contract(s) and the Benefit Program. The claims review fiduciary has the discretionary authority to interpret the Benefit Program and the insurance contract(s) and to determine eligibility for benefits. Decisions by the claims review fiduciary are complete, final and binding on all parties.

It is the period of time during which benefit maximums accumulate. Each new coverage year, the maximums are reset. You will find the coverage year under "BENEFIT PROGRAM INFORMATION". The coverage year should not be confused with the ERISA Plan Fiscal Year End.

What are "covered events"?

The Coverage usually covers events that are for the treatment of injury and sickness. These events must be medically necessary, occur while the Coverage is still in force, and not excluded.

What is a "hospital"?

A hospital is an institution operated by law for the care and treatment of injured or sick persons that has organized facilities for diagnosis and surgery (or has a contract with another hospital for these services), and has 24-hour nursing service. A hospital is not an institution that is primarily a rest, nursing or convalescent home, a home for the aged, an alcoholism or drug addiction treatment facility, or a facility for treatment of mental disorders.

What does "injury" mean?

Injury is a covered person's bodily injury caused by an accident that results, directly and independently of all other causes, in a covered loss. All injuries sustained in one accident, including all related conditions and recurring symptoms of the injuries, will be considered one injury.

What are "inpatient" events?

Inpatient events are those that occur at licensed hospital facilities when you are admitted as an inpatient and charged for at least one day's room & board.

What are "outpatient" events?

Outpatient events are those that occur at doctors' offices, free-standing clinics, and hospitals when you are not admitted as an inpatient.

What does "sickness" mean?

ESSENTIAL COVERAGE

What is the Essential Coverage?

The Coverage pays 100% of the charges a covered person incurs for covered preventive health services. There is a $50 co-pay per prescription for brand name contraceptive prescription drugs. There are no other co-pays, deductibles or maximums.

What does "covered preventive health services" mean?

Covered preventive health services are services that meet the requirements of the Affordable Care Act as determined by the federal government.

What does "co-pay" mean?

A co-pay is the specified amount that you are responsible for paying each time you incur charges for covered brand name contraceptive prescription drugs, before the Coverage begins to pay benefits.

What does "usual and customary" mean?

Usual and customary is a guideline that the carrier uses to determine how much of a charge the Coverage will consider. A "usual" charge is the charge made for a given service by a provider to the majority of its patients. A "customary" charge is one that is charged by the majority of providers within a community for the same services.

How do I file a claim to be reimbursed for payment of a covered expense?

Your provider will most likely want to file a claim for you using his or her own form; however, there are some instances when you may have to pay for services or supplies and submit a claim for reimbursement. For example, your doctor may place you on an aspirin regiment to prevent heart disease, but you must pay for the aspirin when you purchase it. In order to be reimbursed for that purchase, you may submit a claim for reimbursement.

You may request a claim form from your Employer, or you may call the RSL Specialty Products Administration at 1-866-375-0775. You can then fill out the claim form, include a copy of the receipt showing the name of the drug and the date the prescription was filled and mail it to: RSL Specialty Products Administration, Claims Department, 505 S. Lenola Road, Suite 231, Moorestown, NJ 08057. Claims must be submitted within one year of the date of the loss. For Claims Customer Service call 1-866-375-0775, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., ET.

Can I use any pharmacy to get contraceptive prescription drugs?

Yes, but you can use the Prescription Drug ID Card received with the Coverage to help save money at a pharmacy that participates in the Express Scripts, Inc. network.

How does the Prescription Drug ID Card work?

Most pharmacies participate in the Express Scripts, Inc. network, but you should check with the pharmacy before you make your purchase or call Express Scripts, Inc. at 1-866-282-1491 for providers in your area. You will not have to file a claim on purchases you make for your own contraceptive prescriptions at participating pharmacies. The pharmacist will tell you exactly what to pay. If you have covered any of your dependents (spouse or child) under the Essential Coverage, you will have to pay the full, undiscounted price for their contraceptive prescription and submit a claim for reimbursement.

What if I use a non-participating pharmacy?

You must pay the full price up front for your contraceptive drug prescription. Then you must call Express Scripts, Inc. at 1-866-282-1491 and request a claim form. File the claim with Express Scripts, Inc. Do not file your prescription drug claims with RSL Specialty Products Administration. If your purchase at a non-participating pharmacy is for your covered dependent, follow the below instructions.

How do I file a claim to be reimbursed for payment of my covered dependent's contraceptive prescription? You may request a claim form from your Employer, or you may call the RSL Specialty Products Administration at 1-866-375-0775. You can then fill out the claim form, include a copy of the receipt showing the name of the drug and the date the prescription was filled and mail it to: RSL Specialty Products Administration, Claims Department, 505 S. Lenola Road, Suite 231, Moorestown, NJ 08057. Claims must be submitted within one year of the date of the loss. For Claims Customer Service call 1-866-375-0775, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., ET.

DENTAL COVERAGE

What is the Dental Coverage?

The Dental Coverage pays a percentage of the charges a covered person incurs for covered dental procedures up to a per person maximum benefit of $1,000 each coverage year. There is a $50 per person deductible each coverage year. The Schedule of Covered Procedures and Benefits can be found at the end of the Dental Coverage section. Certain types of procedures are subject to waiting periods and frequency limitations.

What is a "deductible"?

A deductible is the amount of money you must pay for eligible expenses before the Dental Coverage begins to pay benefits.

What does "usual and customary" mean?

Usual and customary is a guideline that the carrier uses to determine how much of a dental expense the Dental Coverage will consider. A "usual" charge is the charge made for a given service by a provider to the majority of its patients. A "customary" charge is one that is charged by the majority of providers within a community for the same services

What is a "waiting period"?

A waiting period is the amount of time which coverage must be in force before benefits may become payable for covered procedures.

TERM LIFE COVERAGE

What is the life insurance benefit?

If you, the employee, die while you are covered by the life insurance benefit, your beneficiary will be paid $10,000. If your death is as the result of a covered accident, your beneficiary will be paid an additional $10,000. If any of your dependents older than 6 months, which you have enrolled in Dependent Term Life Coverage, die while covered, you will be paid $2,500. There is no matching accidental death benefit available for covered dependents. The benefit for dependents age 6 months or less is $500. Employee benefits under this coverage are reduced by 50% at age 70 and spouse benefits end when they reach age 70.

Who is the life insurance beneficiary?

Your life insurance benefits will be paid in equal shares to members of the first surviving class, as follows: spouse; children; parents; and then brothers and sisters. If no class has a survivor, the beneficiary is your estate. If you have selected coverage for your dependents, you are automatically the beneficiary for their life insurance benefits. If you are not living on the date of a covered dependent's death, the beneficiary is your estate.

CONVERSION OF YOUR TERM LIFE COVERAGE

What if I'm no longer employed, can I keep my Term Life Coverage?

Yes. If you had Term Life Coverage and now you are no longer employed or are not eligible, you have the right to convert your Term Life Coverage (not including the matching accidental death benefit) to an Individual Ordinary Life Policy. This must be done within 31 days of the end of your coverage.

How much will the conversion policy cost?

It will usually cost a lot more than what you previously paid for your Employer's Program. The cost will be based on your age and other factors.

What if I do want to convert my Term Life Coverage?

If you would like to apply for the conversion policy, you should contact the ERISA Plan Administrator for assistance with the application process.

EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

The life insurance benefit is not payable for any loss of life during the first two years of coverage if death is caused by or results from suicide, while sane or insane.

The accidental death benefit is not payable for loss caused by or resulting from:

- Attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane;
- Voluntarily taking poison, inhaling gas, or taking a drug or chemical not administered by a physician;

SHORT-TERM DISABILITY COVERAGE

What is the benefit for Short-Term Disability (STD)?

The STD Coverage pays up to 50% of your average weekly base pay received for work done for the ERISA Plan Sponsor (plus reported tips, but no overtime), subject to a maximum of $125 a week. For example, if you normally make $200 a week at your job, you will be paid $100 per week in STD payments. The STD Coverage pays for a maximum of 26 weeks. Your benefits under this coverage are reduced by 50% at age 70. In addition, while receiving benefits under this coverage, you do not have to pay the STD premiums. Enrollment in this coverage is only available to you, the employee. It is not available to your dependents.

When would I start receiving STD payments?

They begin after a 14-day elimination period; however, if you are hospitalized during that 14-day period, the STD Coverage begins paying immediately. To receive the benefits, you must become totally disabled due to a sickness while you are covered under the STD Coverage, or due to an injury from an accident that happens while you are covered under the STD Coverage. Total disability due to an injury must occur within 90 days of the accident.

What does "totally disabled" mean?

If you cannot do the duties generally and regularly required by your type of work due to injury or sickness, and your disability requires treatment by a licensed physician, you will be considered totally disabled. If you are no longer totally disabled, your benefits will cease. If you have several periods of total disability due to the same or related causes, and they are separated by less than 2 straight weeks of work (at your regular schedule), the STD Coverage will treat this as one period.

EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

No benefits will be paid for a disability caused by or resulting from:

- Work-related injury or sickness, whether or not benefits are payable under Workers' Compensation or similar law;
- Attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane;
- Voluntarily taking poison, inhaling gas, or taking a drug or chemical not administered by a physician;
- War or any act of war, whether declared or not;
- Your commission of, or attempt to commit, a felony, or any loss sustained while incarcerated for the felony;
- Your participation in a riot;
- Your engaging in an illegal occupation;
- Release of nuclear energy; and
- Your operating, riding in, or descending from any aircraft (including a hang glider), other than while a passenger on a licensed, commercial, non-military aircraft.

AVAII ARII ITY

If you work in California, Hawaii, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, or Puerto Rico, STD coverage is not available.

FILING A CLAIM

How do I file a claim under the BasicAdvantage Total, Essential or Dental Coverage?

Your provider will most likely want to file a claim for you using his or her own form. If you need to file a claim yourself, you may request a claim form from your Employer, or you may call the RSL Specialty Products Administration at 1-866-375-0775 or by visiting www.helpwithmyplan.com. Claims should be mailed to: RSL Specialty Products Administration, Claims Department, 505 S. Lenola Road, Suite 231, Moorestown, NJ 08057. Claims must be submitted within one year of the date of the loss. Under the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage, the carrier reserves the right to require a medical examination at its expense. For Claims Customer Service call 1-866-375-0775, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., ET.

How do I file a claim for my dependent's contraceptive prescription under the Essential Coverage?

You may request a claim form from your Employer, or you may call the RSL Specialty Products Administration at 1-866-375-0775. You can then fill out the claim form, include a copy of the receipt showing the name of the drug and the date the prescription was filled and mail it to: RSL Specialty Products Administration, Claims Department, 505 S. Lenola Road, Suite 231, Moorestown, NJ 08057. Claims must be submitted within one year of the date of the loss. For Claims Customer Service call 1-866-375-0775, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., ET.

When will I know if my BasicAdvantage Total, Essential or Dental Coverage claim is denied?

If all or a part of your claim is denied, you will be notified in writing within 30 days from the date your claim was received. Under some circumstances, the carrier can notify you that it is extending this 30-day time frame by an additional 15 days. The denial notice will include: (a) the specific reason(s) for the denial; (b) the specific policy provision(s) on which the decision is based; (c) a description of any information needed to make the claim complete; (d) a statement of your right to review (on request and at no charge) relevant internal guidelines, documents, and other information; and (e) an explanation of how to appeal for reconsideration of the decision, including your right to bring a lawsuit. If you are required to submit additional information to support your claim, you will have 45 days to do so.

How do I appeal a denied claim under the BasicAdvantage Total, Essential or Dental Coverage?

If you disagree with the decision, you may request a review within 180 days of the initial denial. If you do not submit your appeal on time, you generally will lose the right to appeal the denial. Your appeal must be in writing, clearly stating the reason you believe the denial is incorrect, and include any additional documentation that you feel would support a further review of your claim. You (on request and at no charge) may have reasonable access to and receive copies of all relevant documents concerning your claim. The reviewer of your appeal will be a different person or persons from the reviewer of your initial claim and will not be a subordinate of the initial reviewer. Your claim will be reviewed and a decision will be issued within 60 days from the date your appeal was received. If the decision on appeal continues to deny your claim, you will be furnished with a notice of adverse benefit determination on review, setting forth: (a) the specific reason(s) for the denial; (b) the specific policy provision(s) on which the decision is based; (c) a statement of your right to review (on request and at no charge) relevant internal guidelines, documents, and other information; and (d) a statement of your right to bring a lawsuit.

Is there any coordination of benefits under the BasicAdvantage Total or Essential Coverage?

Neither the BasicAdvantage Total Coverage nor the Essential Coverage coordinate its benefits with any other coverage you might have. That means your benefits will not be reduced because you have other coverage that pays you for the same expenses. If you have coverage from another source, that other coverage could reduce their benefits based on what the BasicAdvantage Total or Essential Coverage pays. An example would be the Medicare or Medicaid programs. Their rules require that your benefits under those programs be reduced by the amount of benefits you would receive under the BasicAdvantage Total or Essential Coverage.
